Rev. J.B. Gribble founded the Warangesda Aboriginal Mission, N.S.W., in 1879. In 1884 he went to England and returned to Western Australia in 1885 to open a mission on the Gascoyne River. The mission was abandoned in 1887 after considerable conflict with settlers in the area. In 1892 he opened Yarrabah Mission in North Queensland
