

OUR ROVING CAMERAMAN

THE aboriginal people in this State are scattered over a wide area, so far apart that many of them may never meet, but the magic camera can bring to us intimate glimpses of these people and enable us to become better acquainted with each other.

If you have photos at home, similar to those you see published in Dawn, send them along and thus add to, and maintain, the interest in your fellow men and women.

This lovely looking lass is now Mrs. Wally Lord of Turleys Bore, near Broken Hill. Before her marriage she was Doreen McNiven of Eulo, Queensland. This photograph was taken on her wedding day and the beautiful gown is made of slipper satin.

Meet the Williams family of Tabulam. Here we have Mrs. Williams, Una and Laurie.

This is what happens when the floods come down. Here we see the bridge over the River at Murrin Bridge, almost submerged.
