Voices of Empowerment: Strengthening our Future

WE ARE EXCITED TO ANNOUNCE THE 2025 AIATSIS SUMMIT WILL BE CO-HOSTED IN PARTNERSHIP WITH LARRAKIA NATION ABORIGINAL CORPORATION IN GARRAMILLA (DARWIN).

The AIATSIS Summit 2025 (the Summit) offers a unique opportunity for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Elders, leaders, and youth along with Academics, Native Title stakeholders, legal experts, GLAM (Galleries, Libraries, Archives and Museums) sector and government representatives to come together and collaborate on the issues that matter most to First Nations peoples.

As one of the largest Australian conferences of its kind and winner of the 2024 Australian Event of the Year, the AIATSIS Summit offers opportunities to support and strengthen Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures, knowledge, and governance.

In 2025, the Summit will incorporate a three-day Indigenous Country and Governance component (4-6 June), Mabo Lecture (3 June), and dedicated PBC day (4 June). Youth focussed sessions will be delivered across all five days. A wide range of exhibitors will be featured throughout the Summit 2025 accompanied by an engaging social and cultural program culminating in a Gala dinner on Friday 6 June.

AIATSIS

Summit 2025 Co-Host

We are excited to partner with the Larrakia Nation Aboriginal Corporation (LNAC) for this year's AIATSIS Summit. LNAC is one of Darwin's leading community service organisations. The Larrakia Nation has grown strong in recent years and delivers a wide range of programs and services across the Darwin region. LNAC is one of the largest not-for-profit, non-government employers of Aboriginal people in Darwin.

The Larrakia Nation's vision is Larrakia First: Larrakia working together as the cultural authority to lead, connect and protect.

Established in 1997 through the Northern Land Council, Larrakia Nation has a proud history of representing the Traditional Owners of the Darwin region extending from Gunn Point in the north, Manton Dam in the south, Adelaide River in the east and the Cox Peninsula in the west.

For over 20 years, LNAC has grown to represent the Traditional Owners of the Darwin region and speak on behalf of Larrakia people while delivering community and outreach services to the broader Darwin community.

2025 AIATSIS Summit theme

This year's theme Voices of Empowerment: Strengthening our Future pays tribute to a world in which Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people's rights, knowledge, and voices are recognised, respected, and valued by all Australians today and tomorrow.

The AIATSIS Summit 2025 Trade Exhibition is the primary networking space for speakers, delegates, partners, and exhibitors. The program will be designed to maximise the opportunity for delegates to visit the Trade Exhibition area.

The catering breaks and coffee stations will be located within the trade exhibition hall.

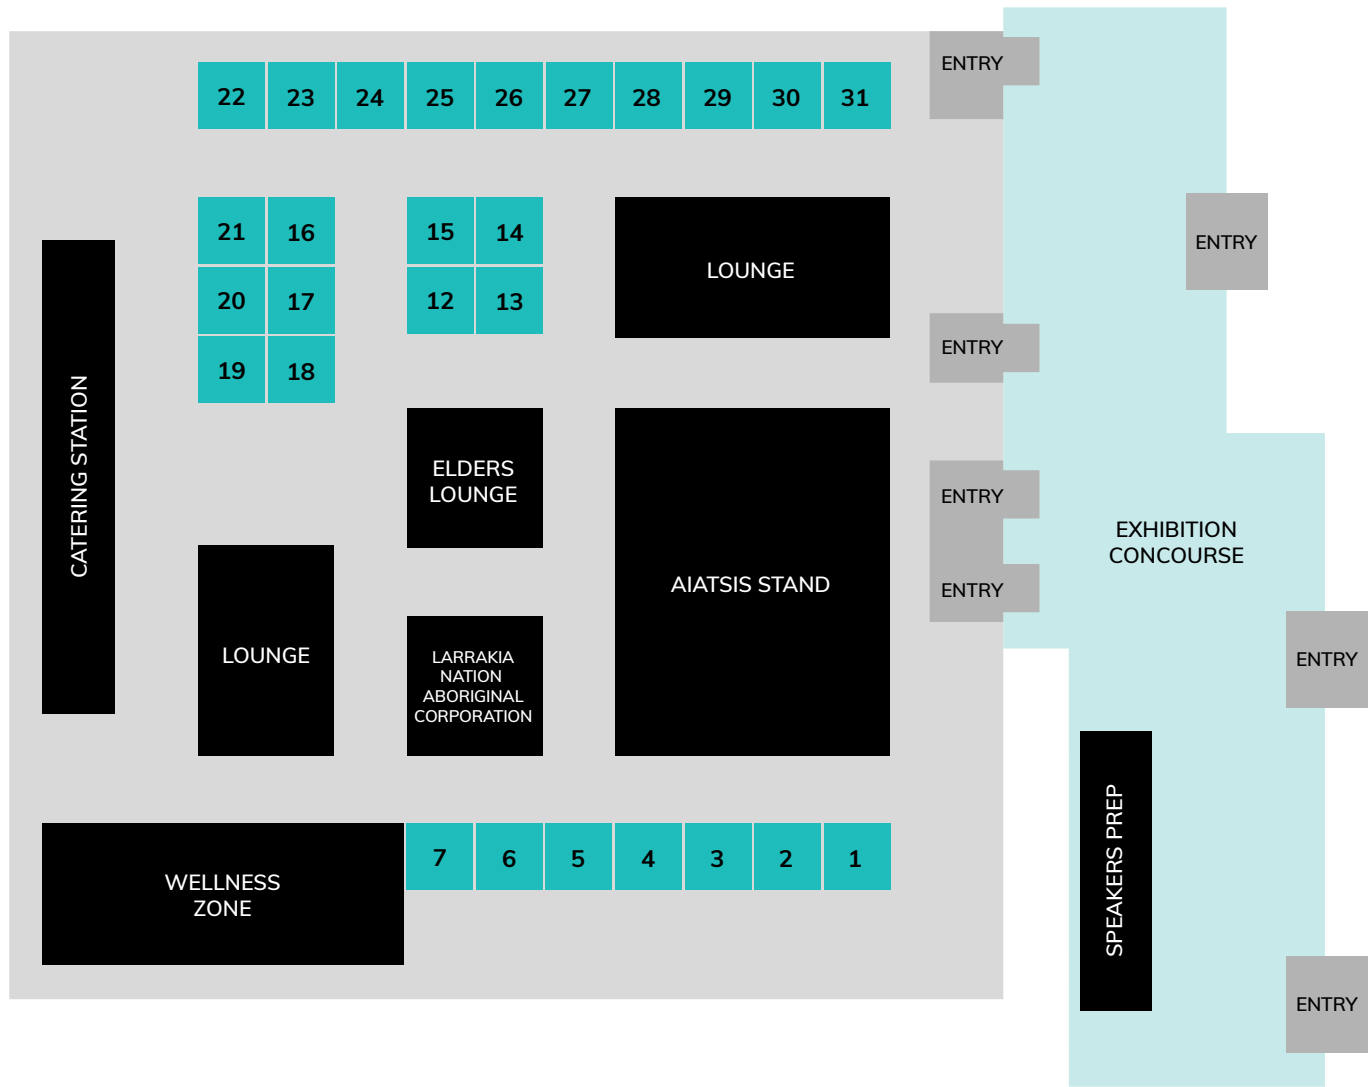

The AIATSIS Summit 2025 exhibitor package includes

- One (1) exhibition booth at the Summit 2025 Trade Exhibition – see floor plan on the following page.
- Organisation logo, profile, website and nominated email listed in the delegate app as exhibitor.
- Two (2) complimentary exhibitor registrations, which includes morning tea, lunch, and afternoon tea throughout the Summit.
- Two (2) complimentary Summit 2025 branded merchandise packages, which includes a t-shirt, satchel, notepad, pen, and water bottle.

The plenary and breakout sessions are not included in the exhibition passes; however, the plenary sessions will be live streamed and viewable from the exhibition hall.

Early confirmation of your booth(s) will enable you to select your preferred space on the floor plan.

Summit Exhibition Darwin Convention Centre

The AIATSIS Summit 2025 provides a unique opportunity for sponsors to communicate with and promote their organisation within the Native Title, Indigenous Studies and Indigenous focused elements within the GLAM sectors.

We rely on a small group of supporters at various levels. All supporting organisations will be promoted via a range of initiatives reflecting their support for this important national event.
