

NUGENT

MS 3467

NUGENT, Ann

FINDING AID

Australian Institute of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies Library

Language Kit: The Dharawal and Dhurga Aboriginal Languages of the South Coast of New South Wales.

Between 1978 and 1980 Ann Nugent developed curriculum materials for use by the Wreck Bay Community and Jervis Bay Primary School. Design and production of the materials were based on fieldwork at Wreck Bay. The resources were designed for use in an Oral History Unit and a Language Unit. For full details of the project see: Final report to the Schools Commission of the Jervis Bay/Wreck Bay Aboriginal School/Community Project, February 1978 to June 1980.

	Item
18 Overhead transparencies: [Wordlists, grammar, pronunciation, language boundaries, books available, Guragama song]	1
Word list	2
Set of Animal shapes for teaching structural elements	3
Board and cards for teaching pronouns	4
Audio tape:
A. Explanation of the sounds which were used in the Dharawal and Dhurga languages.
B. i. Song. Verb paradigms
ii. Percy Davis song
iii. Guragama song.	5
Sheet music and lyrics: 'Guragama' and 'Jimmy the coachman'	6
Final report to the Schools Commission of the Jervis Bay/Wreck Bay Aboriginal School/Community Project, February 1978 to June 1980.	7