CULTURAL SENSITIVITY STATEMENT

It is a condition of use of this finding aid, and of the collection described in it, that users ensure that any use of the information contained in it is sympathetic to the views and sensitivities of relevant Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

This includes:

Language

Users are warned that this finding aid may contain words and descriptions which may be culturally sensitive and which might not normally be used in certain public or community contexts. Terms and descriptions which reflect the author's attitude, or that of the period in which the manuscript was written, and which may be considered inappropriate today in some circumstances, may also be used.

Deceased persons

Users of this finding aid should be aware that, in some Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, seeing images of deceased persons in photographs, film and books or hearing them in recordings etc. may cause sadness or distress and in some cases, offend against strongly held cultural prohibitions.

COLLECTION OVERVIEW

Scope and contents note

The collection comprises a selection of press clippings written by guest Indigenous Australian authors writing as part of the IndigenousX project.

Provenance

The collection was compiled in the AIATSIS Print Collection by Sarah Kennedy on 17 May 2016.

Material separated from the collection

No material has been separated.

Related material

For a complete list of works about IndigenousX, held in the Collection, and for other related material consult Mura®, the AIATSIS catalogue.

For access to Audiovisual material contact AIATSIS Collections.

Administrative Note

"Our stories, our way" is the weekly hosting of guests on the @IndigenousX twitter account by The Guardian online in partnership with IndigenousX. It enables the discussion of topics of interest to the contributing authors as Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people. They tell us about who they are, what they are passionate about, and what they have in store during their upcoming week as @IndigenousX.
