LATE NEWS

The heavenly trumpet sounded on October 18 for Mrs. Retta Long, founder of the A.I.M., and beloved by thousands of our people to whom she ministered for over sixty years. Next month we will publish her picture and pay a tribute to her memory.

November, 1956

Australian Evangel 9
What should a Christian do about ...—well, about anything? Each issue since we began this series on "What should a Christian do?" we have been trying to answer that question about a number of things that Christians are likely to need to know about. Things Christians should do and things Christians should not do, and each time we have tried to give the answer from the Word of God.

But no matter how long we go on asking and answering these questions there is certain to be a time come when some Christian will find something come into their lives about which they have to make a decision which has not been answered in any of the questions. Can we find some general rule that Christians can use at any time when we have to decide whether or not we should do something? Is there some rule or guide that will answer just about any question that begins, "What should a Christian do about . . . .?" I think there is.

The Bible has quite a lot to say about this, but I am thinking now of two verses in particular. First there is I Corinthians 10:31, "Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God." and the other is Hebrews 12:1, "Let us lay aside every weight and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us".

So often a Christian will ask the question, "What harm is there in my doing this?" When we ask that sort of question we have forgotten one very important thing. When we become Christians we become servants—servants of the Lord, with a job to do for Him. To every one of us—not just a few, but every Christian—He has given the job of witnessing for Him, and spreading through all the world the wonderful story of His love in dying for us and redeeming us from sin. Every Christian is the servant of Christ sent into the world as a messenger of the Cross.

Remembering that, we should then ask not "What is there wrong with this" but rather "Will this thing help me to be a better servant of my Lord?" Any thing that is not going to help us to give better service to the Lord is a weight which must be laid aside. Perhaps there may be nothing wrong with that thing; it may be quite harmless.

Paul used the example of the runner in Hebrews. Right now we all know something about this with the Olympic Games to be held in Melbourne this month, and we all know that the athlete who wants to win his race must give up some things just so that he can run better, even though there may be nothing wrong with those things, except that they will stop him doing his best in the race. So it is with us, as we run the race for the Lord. We must give our best to Him who gave His all for us, and to do that we must "lay aside every weight" and shun everything that is not going to help us to run this race better.

Here then is our rule which we can apply to almost everything. "Will this thing help me serve the Lord as His witness better?"
The Wedding of the Year

By Mrs. Una Walker

During a visit to Tabulam, N.S.W., we saw "The Wedding (or Weddings) of the Year" when five couples were united in holy matrimony. Pastor Roberts of Cubawee officiated.

Many nights were spent preparing the gowns for the brides and their attendants. A sister in Christ and an expert needlewoman, Mrs. Marjorie Marsh cut and arranged the gowns. Another willing sister, Mrs.
Florrie Collins, was the milliner and made moon-shaped coronets which looked beautiful. The brides and willing helpers all put their hands toward the event of the year.

God gave us a glorious morning on the 21st. The sun shone brightly through the modern glass windows of this fast improving little village.
Taxis and a bus brought people in and some of our people arrived in their own cars and trucks.

Sister Una Walker collected flowers from the kind people in town, and the Tabulam Taxi Driver, Mr. Etric, gave a lovely cluster of dark red roses. Cakes and pastries, also wedding cakes were made by kind Christian sisters who did everything to the glory of God.

The hands of the clock finally reached 2 p.m., and all brides got dressed at Mrs. Marsh's cottage. Mr.
Etric took the brides and their attendants to the church. Nearly 200 spectators were there, including the relieving Manager at that time, also our kind friend and schoolmaster, Mr. Soorley. The women were smartly dressed and the men looked handsome in their suits and sports clothes.

First to enter the church was Miss Cecceylia Walker, given away by her uncle, Jack Walker. Then followed Miss Susan Hickling on the arm of her brother, Edward Hickling; then Miss Iris Avery walked up the steps on the arm of her beloved father, followed by Miss Kathleen Torrens, who was given away by her uncle, Henry Torrens. The fifth bride to enter the church was Miss Gwen Logan of Woodenbong, who was given away by Brother Bill Green.

Confetti showered over the happy couples and cameras clicked. The reception was held at the home of Mrs. Collins. All the women and girls gave a helping hand and it was lonely to see them work together in unity and love. Each bride had a cake set before her and Pastor Roberts and his dear wife accompanied the party. There were five sittings.

Here are the names of the brides and the grooms:—

Miss Cecceylia Walker, Mr. Pervis
Mercy.
Miss Susan Hickling, Mr. Jeffrey
Phillips.
Miss Iris Avery, Mr. Colin Hickling.
Miss Kathleen Torrens, Mr. John Robinson.
Miss Gwen Logan, Mr. Eric Green.

We praise God for that opportunity of seeing happy Christians walk the path of life and we pray that God's abundant love will rest on these couples in the future. When we speak of love, our thoughts flash back to the favourite text of ever­ one—John 3.16.

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son."

(The writer of the above was formerly Miss Una Byers of Cherbourg and Tabulam—whose dear mother Mrs. Maggie Byers was so well known.—Aunt Evang).

Australian Evangel 11
Another Door Opened
By Pastor Naden

Another door has been opened. For a long time now, I have been trying to reach Warren with the Gospel, but always the door has been closed. One man said, "It is no use you coming here, you will not get anyone to attend services."

But I felt led to go. So we went that is, Mrs. Naden, Dawn and myself. We arrived at 4 o'clock. One man said: "There is a lot of people here today from town, who have not been here for a long time. I wonder what brought them today."

We had an early tea, and waited around. Only one woman came and spoke to us. It looked as though it was true what the man had said. So we gathered a few children together and started. We asked what choruses they knew. One said "Baa Baa Black Sheep". But before long there were over sixty people gathered around.

We had a lovely time and at the end of the service, five children and nine adults surrendered their lives to the Lord. Please pray that we will be able to visit this place more often as they seem very keen for the Word.

We also visited Coonamble, and had a service there. Mr. Allan Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bird joined us on this occasion. Mr. Bird gave a short message which was very effective. Mr. Sam Ah See from Wellington, sang a solo and gave his testimony. At the close of the service two young girls accepted the Lord as their Saviour.

We have just had a visit from Mrs. Ah See and Mrs. Cecil Towney from Wellington. They stayed with us over-night and have just left on the train for home. We are very pleased to be able to report that Mrs. Olga Naden is looking well again. We thank all praying friends for her speedy recovery.

We passed through Gulargambone the other day and were surprised to see the new Church almost completed. Mr. Wakerley is making a very fine job of it. It is something that the people will be proud of. Please find money to the amount of £10, which we have collected for the Evangel.

OUR COVER PICTURE
Seven girls from the Mt. Margaret Home in West Australia proudly wearing their new cardigans.
There are about 90 children in the Home, and one of the activities the older ones look forward to each week is singing on the Mt. Margaret radio broadcast, which goes out each Saturday night from 6KG Kalgoolie.

AN OPEN INVITATION
Sunday, November 11, is a very special day in the life of the church at Gulargambone. That is the date that has been set for the official opening of the new U.A.M. church. Special meetings are planned for that day and visitors are expected from surrounding centres, and an invitation is given to anyone who may be near Gulargambone at that time to share in the meetings.

DO NOT SEND YOUR CHILDREN TO CHURCH—TAKE THEM!
Mr. Ben Mason Visits Cherbourg, Qld.

Again, friends of the Evangel, we have much to thank and praise the Lord for. We have had the joy of having in our midst Mr. Ben Mason. We have been blessed by his ministry. Some of our people have opened their homes for Mr. Mason to have cottage meetings and at each of these meetings the homes were crowded, while others stood outside to listen to the Gospel. Mrs. M. Phillips gave Mr. Mason a Fellowship Tea at the Church. I must mention here that Mr. Mason brightened up our singing. Yes, the singing was beautiful and smart. We had Mr. Mason with us for three weeks. The Lord used him to win souls and we trust and pray that God will richly bless him as he goes about preaching and teaching our own people more about His Word.

We also had the privilege of having a guest speaker from the Sudan United Mission, Mr. R. Conwell and his brother, who are home on furlough. They told us all about the work they are doing in that part of God’s vineyard.

On the 23rd of this month, one of our girls, Miss Ada Roma, was baptised by Mr. Caddy and gave her testimony before the crowd who gathered there to witness her baptism.

Three new lady missionaries have arrived here to take over while Mr. and Mrs. Caddy and children go away for a much-needed rest. We pray that they will come back refreshed to the service to which the Lord has called them. Our three new missionaries mentioned above are Miss Fairfax, Miss Knox and Miss Wingfield. We praise and thank the Lord for their safe arrival and trust that as they come to work among us here they might get a blessing and that we in return will get a blessing from them.

FIRST NEWS FROM OUR BRISBANE REPORTER

This is my first report for the Evangel, and I pray it won't be the last if it is the Lord's will.

We have a little church near the Grey Street Bridge for the dear folks here in Brisbane, and we really have lovely services every Sunday night. It is a real blessing to go to the House of the Lord every Sunday night. Mr. Clissold holds meetings in some of our people's cottages.

At present there are not many coming along to the services, but we are putting our trust in the Lord and in time there will be a lot more coming. We have Sunday School every Sunday afternoon out at Rocklea for the children there.

Tomorrow night Mr. Ben Mason will be back in Brisbane again. We were all glad to hear he was back for a few days with us. Tomorrow night all my friends are coming to the service and I pray that they will always come along.

I praise the Lord for the work Mr. and Mrs. Clissold are doing for our people in Brisbane. I'd like you and many other to remember us in your prayers and the work of the Lord and the A.I.M. in Brisbane.

TEN DAY MISSION IN NOVEMBER AT LA PEROUSE

Christian love and greetings to brothers and sisters in Christ everywhere from us at La Perouse who love Him because He first loved us.

As I pen these lines in my Saviour's name a timely word of encouragement comes to my mind in the well known words of the hymn:

"Hold the fort, for I am coming,
Jesus signals still,
Wave the answer back to heaven,
By Thy grace we will."

Then there are the words of Paul in Galatians 6:9, "And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap if we faint not."

We would appreciate and greatly value the prayer support of "Evangel" readers for the ten day mission which we are planning here from November 16-25. The Missioner will be Bro. Ben Mason. We are planning meetings each afternoon after school for the children and then nightly meetings for the adults. Special weekly prayer meetings have begun on Saturday nights to pray for the campaign, and we believe that the Lord will bless. You will know how to pray with us that the Lord Himself may be magnified, exalted and glorified, souls saved, backsliders restored and God's people exhorted to a holier life. In short that this place may be turned to God in these closing days of His grace.

My heart has been stirred as I have read about how revival came to the New Hebrides. Men got to the end of their own efforts and found the beginning of God's power. Honesty in the presence of God was their watchword, and the fact that they were dealing with a faithful God was their inspiration.

I would like to say that I do enjoy reading the other articles in this worthwhile paper with its fitting title of "The Evangel". Let us now "put on the whole armour of God."

SUDDEN DEATH OF MR. EDWARD ORTON

The residents of Cherbourg and district were shocked to hear of the sudden death in a car accident of Mr. Edward Orton, of Cherbourg, on Saturday night, 11th August. It is understood that in company with the Bowman brothers, he was traveling in a utility, when it ran off the road on the new Kogan Bridge, near Dalby.

Eddie, as he was known to everyone, held the respect and esteem of all who came in contact with him. His manly behaviour, was an example to many of his friends. He was only twenty years of age, and will be sadly missed by his dear mother and father and brother. The body was brought from Dalby back to the Settlement for burial. Our deepest sympathy is extended to the many friends and relatives.

Life At the Singleton B.T.I.

The year of 1956 is almost gone and much has been accomplished here at the Institute. Truly the Lord has blessed us with all spiritual blessings as we look back at the May Bible School, the Annual Meetings in Sydney, and then the N.S.W. Missionary Conference.

God has really worked in our midst as we see the spiritual growth of each student. We have come to the last term of the year, which is followed by the graduation of two of our young men students and seven young women students.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowen are acting principals in the absence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lloyd who are on furlough in America. Other members of our Institute staff are, Mr. and Mrs. Living, Miss Clough, Mr. Stretton, Miss Lundell and Miss Kyle.

The largest number of our students are from Queensland and we are looking forward to having a few more in the coming year. One of our greatest problems at this time of the year is water, as we only have tank supplies. We would ask your prayers concerning this need, that God might be glorified in supplying it. We trust that God will continue to speak to the hearts of young people as we seek to reach more of our own people with the Gospel.

Also I heard the voice of the Lord saying: 'Whom shall I send and who will go for us?'—Isaiah 6.8.

GOONDIWINDI

Two aboriginal women are officials of a unique Country Women’s Association branch at Toomelah mission station, N.S.W., 16 miles across the Queensland border from Goondiwindi.

The branch is the first to be formed with both white and aboriginal members.

President is 44-years-old Leila Den­nison, daughter of Charles Dennison, one of Toomelah’s best-known inhabi­tants, who died last year aged 110.

Vice-president is another aborigine, Mrs. Ivy Binge.

Mrs. McCutcheon, wife of the mis­sion superintendent, is treasurer, and Mrs. Kenny, wife of the head teacher at Toomelah school, is secretary.

The formation of a C.W.A. branch at Toomelah, was the idea of Mrs. W. E. Armstrong Coomeron, of Goondiwindi, who wished to help the mission people broaden their interests and take their rightful place in the community.
