marks carved on them, he remarks, "being a guarantee of the messenger, the same as a ring with us in former times." He also remarks that the hair of these Blacks is generally curly, but often straight; that they paint representations of imaginary animals in caves and on rocks, and dispose of their death by laying them on platforms, by burying in the ground, and by eating them. In the vocabularies attached we find two words which begin with r, and the word wee, which in some places means fire, the equivalent of sun.
