LIFE SAVERS IN THE MAKING

Kinchela Boys Train

Now that the surfing season is in full swing again, the Kinchela boys have recommenced their surf life saving training.

Since the close of last season, quite a few boys have left Kinchela to take up employment in various parts of the State, and this situation has seriously depleted the life saving team, the boys who have left are:

William Hughes, David Perry, Charles Pender, Stanley Harradene, Raymond Franks.

The boys at present at Kinchela who have been selected for training for the coming season will be:

Harry Penrith,
Norman Perry,
Les Darcy,
Lionel Harradene,
James Dickson,
Neville Doyle,
John Armstrong.

There will be more about their doings in future issues of Dawn.
