These photographs feature some Summer Camp held this year.

Almost 100 children from Bourke, Brewarrina, Wellington, Collarenebri, Bridge, Coonabarabran and Dubbo had a wonderful time.

Parents are at last realising that Summer Camp is more than just a holiday in Sydney.

They contribute very materially to our young Aborigines and prepare them for life in the white community.