IT has often been said that the boys and girls of Tomorrow. This is a particularly important goal for our aboriginal youngsters will have greater opportunities as they grow older.

A better education, a better standard of living, and a better social standing—all these will be theirs.

While our children enjoy those too, we should be planning for the future.

Healthy and Happy! Jean Williams and Janet Milera, of Cobram, Victoria.

Three of the Davis clan holidaying at Hat Head. They are Hazel, Wilma, and baby brother, Cyril.

Just look at that chest! The owner is Danny Vale, of Burnt Bridge.

These two young women are Mary Kelly, of Balranald, and Penny Haradine, of Robinvale.

Charlie and Lennie Kirby and their pet possum.

This young man! His look is Gary Simon.