OUR ROVING CAMERAMAN

THE aboriginal people in this State are scattered over a wide area, so far apart that many of them may never meet, but the magic camera can bring to us intimate glimpses of these people and enable us to become better acquainted with each other.

If you have photos at home, similar to those you see published in Dawn, send them along and thus add to, and maintain, the interest in your fellow men and women.

"Look out rabbits here we come!" says Gordon Connors and Robert Daly, of Ollare.

"This wee Scots lassie doing her reel is Helen Clarke, of Cootamundra."

"This flowering shrub makes a wonderful background for pretty little Rosemary Rummage, of Brewarrina."

"Meet Mamie Mosely, of Burnt Bridge."

"The mighty axeman is Norman Murphy, of Brewarrina."

"This handsome young couple about to set out on a bus trip are Neva Walk and Keith Kennedy, of Swan Hill."
