Meets a man of music... George Close, of Woodanbong

John McKenzie, Kevin Adams, Francis Doolan, Barry Toomey and Bruce Doolan

Another member of the Close family from Woodanbong... this time Ralph

---

LAUNDERING GUIDE

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>How to Wash</th>
<th>Water</th>
<th>Cleansing Agent</th>
<th>Finishes</th>
<th>Drying</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>White Cottons and Linens</td>
<td>Soak if badly soiled</td>
<td>Very hot</td>
<td>Blue or bleach when necessary. Starch</td>
<td>Hang in sun.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Soap powder</td>
<td>cottons not linens</td>
<td>Sheets: Fold double hem to</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Coloured Cottons and Linens</td>
<td>Soak if badly soiled</td>
<td>Hot</td>
<td>never bleach.</td>
<td>hem; fold 4 in. over line,</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rayon, Nylon, and Other Synthetics</td>
<td>Do not soak. Do not wash white synthetics with coloureds, pick up colour.</td>
<td>Hot</td>
<td>Synthetic detergent</td>
<td>Hang in shade.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Silk</td>
<td>Don't soak.  (Perspiration deteriorates silk quickly.)</td>
<td>Warm</td>
<td>Synthetic detergent</td>
<td>Hang in shade.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Woollens</td>
<td>Squeeze gently</td>
<td>Warm</td>
<td>Never bleach.</td>
<td>Hang in shade.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Blankets</td>
<td>Support well. Do not rub, wring, or twist.</td>
<td>Warm</td>
<td>Synthetic detergent</td>
<td>Hang in shade.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Laces</td>
<td>Tack fragile pieces on to a firm piece of cotton</td>
<td>Warm</td>
<td>Soap flakes</td>
<td>Pull out to right size. Dry flat on a towel.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

17