

CONTENTS

List of contributors	vii
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction	xv
Reading and writing Bininj Kunwok words	xxiv
A guide to pronunciation	xxv
Vowels	xxv
Diphthongs	xxv
Consonants	xxv
Long stops and short stops	xxvii
Hyphens	xxvii
PART I: Talking about emus	1
Chapter 1: Bininj Elder Jimmy Kalarriya talks about emus with Peter Biless Nabarlambarl and Don Nakadilinj Namunjdja at Manmoyi Outstation	3
Where do we find her, the emu?	7
Emus and water	9
Emu's predators	12
What emus do during the day	14
Reproduction	14
Emu nesting	15
Hunting emus	19
Emus and fire	20
Chapter 2: Jack Nawilil and Jimmy Kalarriya talk about emus at Bolkdjam Outstation	25
Names, social classification of emus, emu clans and sites of significance	26
Where they go and what they eat	31
Predators	34
Emu movements	35
Reproduction	36
Diet	37
More on movements	38
Preparing and cooking emus	39
Dividing the meat	39
Burning country: fire and emus	40
Emu population change	43
Emus and fruit gathering	43
Emu gender	44
Chapter 3: Mick Kubarkku and family from Yikarrakkal talk about emus	45
Predators	51
Nesting and hatching the chicks	52
Diet	55
Emu scats	57

Chapter 4: Jack Djandjomerr and Josie Maralngurra talk about emus at Kabulwarnamyo Outstation . . .	59
Emu diet — food and water	61
Gender and reproduction	64
More on emu diet.	66
Emus and fire	67
Hunting emus.	69
Chapter 5: George Djandjomerr talks about emus at Manabudduma	71
Emu and her names	73
Habitat	74
Predators.	79
Emu gender	80
Emu movements	81
The emus near Marlkawo — diet, fire, vocalisations	82
Emus, fire and hunting	85
Cooking emus.	86
Chapter 6: Lofty Bardayal Nadjamerrek and Mary Kolkiwarra talk about emus at Kabulwarnamyo Outstation.	87
Emu gender	92
Habitat	92
Emus and water.	95
Emus and predators	95
Emu movements	99
Emu reproduction	100
Emu eggs and cultural taboos	103
Emu diet	105
Emus and fire	109
Hunting emus.	110
Life in the bush hunting emus and other animals	112
<hr/>
PART II: Three greedy emu stories: Nicholas Evans, with Toby Gangali and Jimmy Kalarriya	111
Introduction	113
Toby Gangali's version.	115
Jummy Kalarriya's Kundedjnjenghmi version	122
Dalabon version by Jack Chadum and Don Bunindjawa.	124
Conclusion	127
<hr/>
Part III: Cooking an emu in an underground oven at Mumeka: Jon Altman	131
The Photos: Ngabenbimmey 'I took photos of them'.	133
Notes from My Field Diary	142
Some contemporary commentary	145
Appendix 1: Collated by Wendy Telfer and Murray Garde: summary of information about emus	147
Appendix 2: Dalabon, anthropologists and the greedy emu story	153
Appendix 3: Bininj Kunwok and other language names and associated information for emus in Arnhem Land	156
Appendix 4: Skin names or subsections in Western Arnhem Land	157