Contents

The Wentworth Lectures v
Note to Readers v
Presenter Biographies vii
Introduction Robert Tonkinson xiii

1 Calories and bytes: Towards a history of the Australian islands Rhys Jones 1
2 Looking ahead through the past Ronald M Berndt 25
3 Aboriginal political life Les Hiatt 59
4 ‘A sense of making history’: Australian Aboriginal studies 1961–1985 DJ Mulvaney 75
5 Not land rights but land rites Ken Colbung 90
6 ‘Studying man and man’s nature’: A history of the institutionalisation of Aboriginal anthropology Nicolas Peterson 102
7 Aborigines and policing: Aboriginal solutions from Northern Territory communities Marcia Langton 125
8 The end in the beginning: Re(de)finding Aboriginality Michael Dodson 145
9 Native title: The beginning or the end of justice? RS French 163
10 An Arnhem Land story Dr Marika 180
11 Beyond the mourning gate: Dealing with unfinished business Patrick Dodson 192
12 Unusual couples: Relationships and research on the knowledge frontier Peter Sutton 204
13 Indigenous Australian Studies and higher education Martin Nakata 225
The Wentworth Lectures

14 ‘Difference’ and ‘autonomy’ then and now: Four decades of change in a Western Desert society Robert Tonkinson 242

15 Guarding ground: A vision for a National Indigenous Cultural Authority Terri Janke 258

16 First Australians, Law and the High Court of Australia Michael Kirby 281

17 To recognise or not to recognise: The place of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples in the Australian Constitution Megan Davis 298

Index 312

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are advised that this publication contains names of people who have passed away.