
CONTENTS

Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
INTRODUCTION	1
The Drug, the Set and the Setting	3
The Research Methodology	5
Summary	7
CHAPTER 1 AN OVERVIEW OF ABORIGINAL SUBSTANCE USE	9
Populations and Substances of Choice	9
The Youthful Population	11
Defining the Problem	13
CHAPTER 2 PATTERNS OF USE	19
Studies of Cultural Differences between Indigenous Groups	19
Studies of Regional Variation Overseas	22
Regional Variation in Australia	27
CHAPTER 3 SO TOXIC A SUBSTANCE	37
The Toxicity of Petrol	37
Lead Absorption	38
Hydrocarbon Toxicity	39
Encephalopathy	40
Recovery	44
Clinic and Hospital Treatment	46
Chelation Therapy in Australia	47
CHAPTER 4 THROWING THEIR LIVES AWAY	53
Data on Aboriginal Deaths	53
The Distribution of Deaths in Australia	59
Susceptibility: The Role of Nutrition and Health Status	62
Evacuation and Treatment of Sniffers	64
CHAPTER 5 STATEMENTS OF AUTONOMY	69
Explanations as Strategies	69
Autonomy and Relatedness	72
My Body, My Business	75
'Getting Skinny': Anorexia and Petrol Sniffers	78
Commencing and Maintaining Use	82
Gangs and Heavy Metal	87
Refusing Incorporation	95

CHAPTER 6 SANCTIONS	99
Informal Local Sanctions	100
Socio-cultural Influences	102
Access to Resources	111
The Role of Christianity	113
From Anglicans to Action	114
Puritanical Influence in the Western Desert	119
The Criminalisation of Petrol Sniffing	121
Policing	129
‘The Welfare’	131
Local Initiatives	132
Social Restraints	134
CHAPTER 7 THE SPREAD OF THE PRACTICE	139
The History of Petrol Sniffing	139
Northern Australia	139
Central Australia	146
The Progression	150
Presence and Absence of Petrol Sniffing	152
Community Action	160
CHAPTER 8 ACTION AND RESISTANCE	169
Social Meanings	169
Social Actions	173
Overseas Interventions	180
The Influence of the Cattle Industry	183
CONCLUSION	191
REFERENCES	195
INDEX	217