

INDIGENOUS RESEARCHERS AND GOVERNMENT SOCIAL POLICY

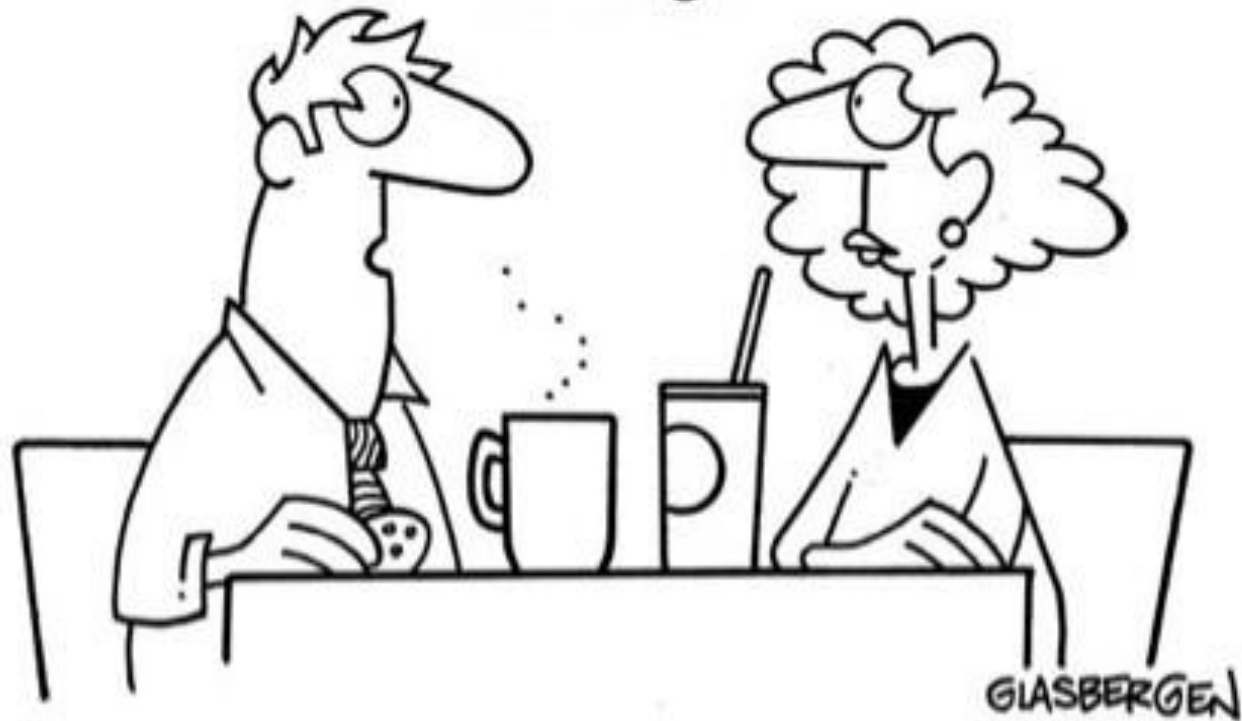

Angela Barney-Leitch

AIATSIS Research Conference 2019

Professors Lounge

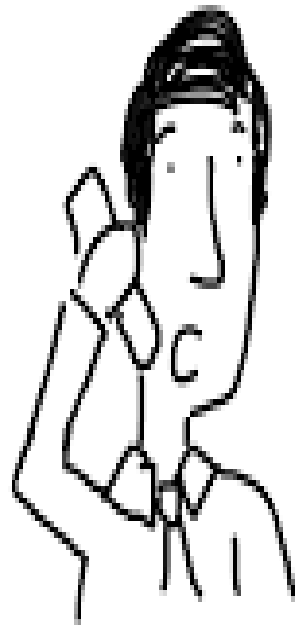

© Randy Glasbergen.
www.glasbergen.com

“The kids don't listen, so I have to repeat myself. I'm always repeating myself. You know, always saying the same thing more than once. I say it once, and then they make me say it again...”

We have a board meeting coming up and could use a little input from the evaluation team.

Sorry, we're not scheduled to provide input until year 3.

freshspectrum.com

Search ID: CC38723

"Who am I to question our government's policies? I'll tell you who I am! I'm Bernard A. Nesbitt, who reads the 'Times,' the 'Wall Street Journal,' the 'Post,' 'Newsweek,' 'Time,' 'Business Week,' 'U.S. News & World Report,' 'Look,' 'Life,' and the 'Saturday Evening Post.' That's who I am!"

TOM GAULD

UNIVERSITY CONSIDERATIONS

- Support the establishment of Indigenous research think/conversation tanks
- Support the establishment of knowledge brokers
- Provide mentors and support and other resources for Indigenous academics to research and publish
- Consider the roles of Indigenous academics within a University
- Consider the research impact on policy as part of the criteria for promotion
- Provide open access to key documents or journals.

