

Contents

Contributors	v
Introduction Fiona Magowan and Karl Neuenfeldt	1
1. From ‘Navajo’ to ‘Taba Naba’: Unravelling the travels and metamorphosis of a popular Torres Strait Islander song Martin Nakata and Karl Neuenfeldt	12
2. Home Among the Gum Trees: An ethnography of Yolngu musical performance in mainstream contexts Peter Toner	29
3. Music of the Torres Strait Eddie Koiki Mabo	46
4. Mabo, Music and Culture Noel Loos	51
5. Dancing Into Film: Exploring Yolngu motion, ritual and cosmology in the Yirrkala Film Project Fiona Magowan	57
6. A Rally at Ramingining: The ‘uniting’ force of music and dance in a Yolngu Christian context Ingrid Slotte	76
7. Grand Concerts, Anzac Days and Evening Entertainments: Glimpses of musical culture on Thursday Island, Queensland, 1900–1945 Steve Mullins and Karl Neuenfeldt	96
8. Making the Journey In: Opening up spaces for performing, teaching and learning Aboriginal performance traditions Elizabeth Mackinlay	119
9. Musical Times: The interplay between metrical time and real time in a Central Arnhem Land clan song series Greg Anderson	143
Index	166