

Native Title in the News February 2008

Date	State	Subject	Summary	Source
01-Jan-08	NATIONAL	Debate Relying on Sound Advice	The Charles Darwin University, CSIRO, Griffith University, Land and Water Australia the North Australia Indigenous land and Sea Management Alliance and the University of Western Australia have come together under a $30 million dollar research initiative known as TRaCk. The program aims to explore traditional knowledge and custom in managing the natural fresh water resources in Northern Australia.	Irrigation and Water Resources (National, 1 January 2008), 15.
31-Jan-08	SA	Infrastructure work underway for expansion	Premier Mike Rann has 'said that work is underway to provide essential infrastructure for the planned Olympic Dam expansion'. The government will also be involved to 'manage processes related to environmental, native title and aboriginal heritage matters'.	Roxby Downs Sun (Port Augusta, 31 January 2008), 4
02-Feb-08	QLD	Gas or hot air	An Indigenous Land Use Agreement has been registered with the National Native Title Tribunal by 13 traditional owner groups and a company called the Cape Yorke Pipeline. The agreement says that 'if the gas project is resurrected...potential operators will only have to negotiate with one group instead of 13 individuals'.	Cairns Post (Cairns, 2 February 2008), 20; 'Aboriginal Groups Seek Best Gas deal' Western Cape Bulletin (Weipa, 13 February 2008), 7; 'PNG Gas Pipeline back on the boards' Torres News (13 February 2008), 16.

Native Title in the News February 2008

02-Feb-08	NT	I personally see a hope'	Wali Wunungmurra, Chairman of the Northern Land Council has reflected on the recent changes affecting the organisation noting that there was a need to involve more 'outside people' and getting feedback from the community. This follows the tensions of created between the NLC and traditional owners over the Muckaty Nuclear waste depot proposal and the negative relationships between the former Chief Minister Claire Martin and NLC Chairman Norman Fry.	Northern Territory News (Darwin, 2 February 2008), 220.
02-Feb-08	NT	Land rights champion dies, 87	Northern Territory Indigenous land rights campaigner Gerry Blitner has died. The former chairman of the Northern Land Council passed away on Sunday.	Weekend Australian (Australia, 2 February 2008), 6.
04-Feb-08	NSW	Land claim is rejected by Government Minister	A land claim lodged by the Coffs Harbour and District Local Aboriginal Land Council has been rejected by Minister Tony Kelley 'because of its high recreation value for Indigenous and non Indigenous users'. Other claims around the Coffs Harbour area have been successful including the land on Bucca Road adjacent to the Recreational area near Bucca school.	Coffs Coast Advocate (Coffs Harbour, 4 February 2008), 6.
04-Feb-08	WA	Funding boost to native title work	The Department of Families, Housing, Community Services and Indigenous Affairs has provided $5.5 Million dollars worth of additional funding to 'fast track native title work in the resource rich Pilbara region of WA'. The additional resources will 'allow claim representatives, Pilbara Native Title Service to progress the Pilbara Connection Project at a much faster rate than previous funding allowed'.	Geraldton Guardian (4 February 2008), 3; 'Money to speed up Pilbara claims' Koori Mail (13 February 2008), 46.

Native Title in the News February 2008

05-Feb-08	SA	Land Management: Guide shows way	A guide to 'working with Aboriginal people on natural resource management is the first of its kind in Australia'. The guide was produced in partnership with the Mount Lofty Ranges natural resources management Board and 'provides a foundation for integrated projects'.	Adelaide Advertiser (Adelaide, 5 February 2008), 24.
05-Feb-08	WA	Traditional owners must have their say on the future of Kimberley Lands	The Kimberley Land Council (KLC) will begin 'formal consultation with Traditional Owners supported by the Western Australian Government to decide the future of gas development in the Kimberley'. This follows a statement by the WA Government that 'no development will occur without the informed consent of Traditional Owners'. KLC Executive Director Wayne Bergmann said that 'as traditional owners of the land, Traditional Owners will only accept resource development that is environmentally responsible and culturally appropriate'.	Media Release , (Kimberley Land Council, 5 February 2008).

Native Title in the News February 2008

06-Feb-08	QLD	Deal on land use: negotiations lead to state first	An Indigenous Land Use Agreement has been signed between traditional owners and the Ipswich City Council which will deal with infrastructure development, cultural heritage issues and community relations in Ipswich.	South West News (Brisbane, 6 February 2008), 5; 'Historic First with Indigenous agreement' Satellite (Western Edition) (Brisbane, 6 February 2008), 3; 'Land Use Pact' Ipswich News (Queensland, 7 February 2008), 5; 'Ipswich Update' Gatton Lockyer Brisbane Valley Star (Gatton, 6 February 2008), 14; 'Council Welcomes Land Use Agreement' Ipswich Advertiser (Ipswich, 6 February 2008), 4; 'Ipswich leads way in Land Use Agreement' Ipswich Advertiser (Ipswich, 6 February 2008), 6; 'ICC signs historic land use agreement' City west News (National, February 2008), 3.
------------------	------------	--	---	--

Native Title in the News February 2008

06-Feb-08	VIC	Race claims ready to roll	Indigenous groups are planning to make claims on large areas of Victoria 'in the wake of moves to revert national parks back to Indigenous ownership'. The scheme involves mainly red gum forests but has the potential to include other national parks. The parks will then be leased back to the government 'so that it could continue being used as national parks under boards of management made up predominantly of members of local Aboriginal groups'.	Weekly Times (Victoria, 6 February 2008), 11; 'Red gum park will prove to be the great divider' Weekly Times (Victoria, 13 February 2008), 17.
07-Feb-08	WA	Base metals exploration at Warburton	Native Title access agreements with the Ngaanyatjarra people are in place which will 'enable the commencement of active exploration programs in the 2008 field Season'. This includes the base metals project at Warburton.	Kalgoorlie Miner (Kalgoorlie, 7 February 2008), 14.
07-Feb-08	WA	Guidelines needed for Pilbara Native Title Claims	The Pastoralists and Graziers' Association 'has welcomed any Federal Government initiative to speed native title process in the Pilbara provided that there are guidelines for an outcome'. The PGA said that the 'government had to also ensure that respondents were given the resources to cope with more legal proceedings'.	Farm Weekly (Western Australia, 7 February 2008), 19.
08-Feb-08	NATIONAL	Internet saves court time and money	The Federal Court will extend an electronic trial system that allows the court to conduct live hearings over the internet. Judges sitting in remote areas, such as in native title cases, will also benefit from the system.	Australian (8 February 2008), 39.

Native Title in the News February 2008

08-Feb-08	QLD	Island's Court bid for Deeds	The Badu Island Council is 'taking supreme court action in a bid to transfer its land and businesses to a public company, ahead of council amalgamations'. The Island Council Chief is taking action to 'have Resources Minister Craig Wallace transfer the deed to a public company'.	Cairns Post (Cairns, 8 February 2008), 9.
09-Feb-08	NSW	Chinderah marina dead in the water	A native title case in the Federal Court has ended with parties withdrawing their applications for a declaration that no native title exists over the Tweed River bed. Plans to build a marina in the area have been halted until another case successfully extinguishes native title in the area.	Daily News (Tweed Heads, 9 February 2008), 5; 'Marina plans still on hold' Border Tweed Mail (New South Wales, 14 February 2008), 26; 'Marina plans scuttled' Tweed Sun (Tweed Heads, 14 February 2008), 6.
10-Feb-08	NT	Anglers to discuss fishing	The Amateur Fishermen's Association (AFANT) will hold its annual meeting. New Northern Land Council Chief Executive John Christopherson is expected to attend and discuss 'the Federal Court's Blue Mud Bay decision'.	Sunday Territorian (Darwin, 10 February 2008), 5.
11-Feb-08	QLD	Moratorium on Torres Strait Mining Extended	Australian Foreign Minister Stephen Smith has extended indefinitely a moratorium on mining and drilling in the Torres Strait. The moratorium was established in 1985 with the Torres Strait treaty and prohibits mining and drilling of the seabed or subsoil in the Torres Strait Protected zone.	Dow Jones Newswire (11 February 2008); 'Extension of Torres Strait mining moratorium' Torres News (Thursday Island, 20 February 2008), 5.

Native Title in the News February 2008

13-Feb-08	QLD	Future of the Torres Strait fishing industry at high risk of depletion	Traditional owners in the Torres Strait have warned that over fishing in the Torres Strait can lead to a depletion of stocks. The Kaurareg argue that 'the future of the Tones Strait fishing industry is at high risk of depletion which affects the Traditional Inhabitant Boat fishermen and or their families.	Torres News (Torres Strait, 13 February 2008), 14.
15-Feb-08	NT	High Court puts challenge on hold	A High Court case challenging the intervention in the Northern Territory has been placed on hold by Justice Hayne and will now be heard in April or May. The claim was originally brought by Maningrida traditional owner Reggie Wurridjal and the Bawinunga Aboriginal Corporation. However according to Charles Darwin University Associate professor and head of law Matthew Storey, under the constitution, Aboriginal communities that are part of the Territory may not be entitled to compensation because 'constitutional guarantees can be sidestepped if the Federal Government uses its Territories power to make laws'.	Northern Territory News (Darwin, 15 February 2008), 9; 'Land grab claims to be tested in court' Northern Territory News (Darwin, 19 February 2008), 8.
19-Feb-08	NT	Keep applying for permits says CLC boss	Permits are no longer required for the common areas of remote Aboriginal communities. However people travelling through Aboriginal land on the main roads are still required to have permits. The Central Land Council has urged people to continue to apply for the permits and respect Indigenous land.	Centralian Advocate (Alice Springs, 19 February 2008), 5; 'Respect permit system' Northern Territory News (Darwin, 20 February 2008), 6; 'Permit system on Aboriginal Land in the NT' Media Release (Minister for Families, Housing, Community Services and Indigenous Affairs, 17 February,

Native Title in the News February 2008

				2008), 11; 'Visitors should still respect permit system in NT, land council says' National Indigenous Times (Malua Bay, 21 February 2008), 4.
20-Feb-08	NATIONAL	Macklin signals review of leases	The new Labor Government will 'review the effectiveness of the controversial 99 year leases over communal Aboriginal land'. This announcement follows confirmation from the Opposition that any laws to reverse the leases will be blocked by the Coalition. Indigenous Affairs Minister Jenny Macklin said that 'the Australian Government will work with state and territory governments and in close partnership with traditional owners and their representatives to streamline leasing options'. As a part of the changes the Land Rights Act will be 'changed to allow shorter leases on Aboriginal land'.	Australian (National, 20 February 2008), 6; 'Let us own homes: Mundine' Australian (National, 21 February 2008), 1; 'Some 'not ready' for Aussie dream' Australian (National, 21 February 2008), 1; 'Macklin Guarantees 99-year leases' Australian (National, 22 February 2008), 6; 'All Australians have right to own a home: paternalism blocks black Australian dream' Weekend Australian (National, 23 February 2008), 18; 'Macklin to free up land rights' Australian (National, 28 February 2008), 4; 'Demand for change to Land Rights Act' Australian (National, 29 February 2008), 4.

Native Title in the News February 2008

20-Feb-08	WA	Yamatji Progress Land Claims	Roy Belloti has been elected chairperson of the Yamatji Land and Sea Council committee and the board of the Yamatji Marlpa Barna Baba Maaja Aboriginal Corporation. The organisation is also currently reviewing its constitution.	Northern Guardian (Carnavon, 20 February 2008), 4.
27-Feb-08	WA	Heritage claims a roort	The Association of Mining and Exploration Companies claims 'Aboriginal land councils have been misusing laws requiring indigenous involvement in heritage surveys by withholding their services unless paid big money sums. They claim is 'partly to blame for a big fall in exploratory drilling'.	Pilbara News (Pilbara, 27 February 2008), 17.
28-Feb-08	QLD	Battle over as parties sign land agreement	Toowoomba's first Indigenous Land Use Agreement was signed yesterday covering an area 'of the Table Top Bushland Reserve'. The agreement was signed at a Picnic Point ceremony by Toowoomba City Council officials and representatives of the Jagera, Yuggera and Ugarapul people. The agreement will 'benefit the whole community as the Jagera, Yuggera and Ugarapul people work together to manage and protect the reserve'. As a part of the agreement the council 'will consult the traditional owners about the reserve'.	Toowoomba Chronicle (Toowoomba, 28 February 2008), 9.
28-Feb-08	NT	Troubles continue for land council	The Northern Land Council's chief executive John Christopherson has removed the principle legal officer Ron Levy. However he was reinstated in his position after Mr Levy won a supreme court injunction after sucessfully arguing that his dismissal was unlawful.	Northern Territory News (Darwin, 28 February 2008), 9.